ELO Digital Office at the DMS EXPO 2011 in Hall 7, Stand 7A11:

ELO's convention portfolio: Ranging from Lotus Notes to mobile applications and the Cloud

Stuttgart, 4. August 2011 – ELO Digital Office will be participating in the DMS EXPO in Hall 7, Stand 7A11 from September 20 to 22. In Stuttgart the software maker will be presenting various expansion modules to its enterprise content management (ECM) solutions, ELOprofessional and ELOenterprise.

For example, the new ELO client for Lotus Notes will be appearing. It provides the complete spectrum of ECM functionality from within your Lotus Notes environment. In addition, ELO will be presenting its "DMS Desktop Solution for Microsoft Office" also in a Lotus Notes edition: with it users will get comprehensive document-management functions when working with Microsoft Office. In addition to the ELO Microsoft Office add-ins, the package includes archive integration with Windows Explorer as well as iSearch, ELO's new enterprise search feature.

In the area of mobile applications, the Stuttgart ECM specialist will be presenting its new "ELO for Smartphone 2011" app, which is available immediately for free from the Apple App Store. It can be used with both the Apple iPhone as well as the iPad and utilizes an optimized user frontend. It now features photo uploading and ELO iSearch.

In the area of cloud computing, ELO has intensified the strategic cooperation with Microsoft to further advance its own technological platform solution—and is opting for Microsoft's cloud services platform Azure.

Also in attendance at the stand will be selected ELO Business Partners, who—among other things—will be presenting their own tried-and-tested cloud solutions. Registered so far are ACTIWARE, Anywhere 24, CLB-IT, Holme & Co,
